

ADVANCE INFORMATION

GAME, SET AND FACTS

65 Years of Tennis Extremes

Which women played a rally of 643 shots lasting 29 minutes?

Who suffered 78 aces hit past him but still won the match?

Which player standing 5 feet 7 inches played another of 6 feet 8 inches over five sets, and won?

Who was 0-6, 0-5, and love-40 down in a Grand Slam match but went on to win?

Which tennis player has won a total of 380 trophies, 60% more than any other player, male or female?

Any other questions about the fascinating world of tennis extremes?

Former international tournament player Rod Mountain, now author of Game, Set, and Facts – 65 years of Tennis Extremes, has many more answers and a wealth of fascinating facts about tennis, from here, there, and everywhere.

PUBLISHED 22nd June – pre-Wimbledon!

ISBN : 978-1-9163984-2-9

Price : £28.99 in Hardback

Once upon a time, Rod played tournament tennis and travelled the world.

Now, as well as writing Game, Set and Facts, he is one of the world's first Environmental Scientists, speaking with authority on energy-savings and sustainability, and is the author of Beat Energy Bills and Climate Change.

Rod's other passions include Ancient Egypt, skiing, tennis, padel tennis, cats, and writing rhyme.

He has two grown up children and lives carbon-negative in Connecticut and Wiltshire.

For review copy, interview, or further information, contact Matt Holland on 07940 827624 at matt@lowershawfarm.co.uk or Rod Mountain on 07818 440 249 at rod@roderickmountain.com